

INTAMIN Germany has chosen SprutCAM to start new PLASTIC SOLUTIONS service.

INTAMIN Germany specializes in vehicle construction and plastic technology. The main focus of the work is the construction of prototypes, which are tested in continuous load tests and are developed up to the start of production.

The serial production is then transferred to qualified supplier companies, corresponding to the element groups, while the final assembly takes place again in Rüscheid at INTAMIN.

